1. Director				Senator Tunney and seven co-sponsors introduced S. 1887, the "Federal Employees' Privacy Act," known more commonly as the Ervin bill. The bill was initially introduced by Senator Ervin in 1966 and has passed the Senate during every Congress since that date, but has always died in the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee. The bill makes numerous concessions to CIA's special interests, but STAT does not appear to fully protect our interests.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

25X1 [redacted] Tuesday - 10 June 1975

1. (Confidential - GLC) Received a call from Dan Spiegel of Senator Hubert Humphrey's (D., Minn.) staff, who asked a number of questions about MARV testing. He said one of the central points that concerns him was the Soviet capability to evaluate the American system. According to him, representatives of the General Electric Company have indicated that the Soviets have a capability to identify evader MARVs. He went on to say that his principal concern is that Senator Thomas J. McIntyre (D., N.H.) be informed on this subject before the Defense Procurement Bill goes to conference. I told Spiegel I would look into this and get back in touch with him.

25X1 3. [redacted] Attended a meeting in the White House of the Legislative Interdepartmental Group on Diego Garcia.

25X1 4. [redacted] I called Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, and discussed the subjects that would be covered at today's briefing. I also mentioned that we had a Reserve release letter which I would bring to him today. [redacted] and I later dropped the letter off and briefed McConnell on the release.) 25X1

Later in the morning, McConnell called and said the Chairman would have to cancel the Director's briefing of the Intelligence Operations Subcommittee this afternoon. McConnell said he would be back in touch for a new date.

25X1 5. [redacted] Called Dorothy Fosdick, Permanent Investigations Subcommittee staff, and gave her a fill-in on Brezhnev per her request yesterday. I said he had recently been seen at a soccer game in Moscow, so he was not out of circulation at the moment.
